

Have you ever experienced loss? Have you ever desired, hoped, prayed and longed that there would be a way you could experience a restoration of those things you have lost? If your answer is what I believe it is, a thundering capital YES, then this booklet is just what you need!

The experience of loss is an experience ALL human beings pass through whether they consciously know it or not. The object of loss may vary from one to another. It may be the loss of a relationship, the loss of property, the loss of a good name/ reputation etc.

The experience of loss may be permanent e.g. the death of a spouse, friend etc. or it may be temporal in nature i.e. it may be possible to recover or experience a restoration of the same e.g. the theft of a car, a mobile etc.

This kind of predicament therefore calls for and demands that man be able to either bear with his loss or seek a way in which he can experience a restoration of that which he has lost.

THE GOOD NEWS is that even though loss is a universal experience it is possible to experience the restoration of ALMOST ALL that one loses in this life-time.

The situation of loss you are going through now may not be as bleak as you think. CHEER UP for there could be a RESTORATION for you on the way.

In this book I will share with you WISDOM FOR RESTORATION as revealed in God's Holy Word. This book offers practical wisdom which you can apply in your life to put you well on the way to experiencing the restoration God desires for you in the areas the enemy has come and messed up.

Loss is universal but you can choose to experience Restoration if you hock up with the wisdom of God. Here is how!
